WORKING WITH
BUSINESS EVENTS AUSTRALIA

Under the Business Events Australia brand, Tourism Australia raises awareness and consideration of Australia's quality business events product offering and delivery of both association and incentive events. Activity includes brand and content marketing, educational visits, trade engagement and events that allow the Australian business events industry to meet with qualified buyers to grow their business.

TARGET AUDIENCES

Tourism Australia targets business events planners and decision makers. Target customers are:

- International incentive agents
- Corporate decision makers for business events
- International association event buyers and decision makers
- International association delegates
- International exhibition decision makers and attendees

CORE MARKETS

Tourism Australia focuses exclusively on international markets which represent the greatest return on investment. Core markets for Australia are:

- Greater China – incentive focus
- New Zealand – incentive focus
- North America – incentive and association focus
- United Kingdom and Europe – association focus
- Global – international association delegates

TRADE PROGRAM

Tourism Australia offers a number of opportunities for industry to meet and do business with international business events buyers, both in key markets and Australia.

- Exhibit on the Australia stand at international business events trade shows or attend a Tourism Australia event in market to meet with buyers, develop relationships, network and gain insights.
- Contact your local convention bureau for more information about participating in tailored educational visits, which provide international business events decision makers a first-hand experience of Australian destinations and business events products.
- Be part of Tourism Australia's signature incentive event, Dreamtime, held in Australia every two years, to connect with international incentive buyers and media during business sessions, networking events and the educational program.
- Visit australia.com/businessesevents/Australia-on-show to view Tourism Australia's business events trade program calendar.

MARKETING COMMUNICATIONS PROGRAM

Tourism Australia's business events global marketing communications program delivers content, brand presence and partnership marketing in key international business events markets, reaching media and the target audience. This activity includes print, digital, social media, public relations, direct marketing, brand and content. Tourism Australia provides several opportunities for industry to become involved.

- Send us information on your business events product which can be communicated via a global strategy dedicated to showing why there's nothing like Australia for business events.
- Share product information, videos, fact sheets, images, case studies and itineraries with us to create content including feature stories for a global business events audience.
- Let us know about upcoming events attracting international delegates. These can be used to highlight Australia's performance as a business events destination through case studies, articles and social media.
- Send information and share your news on your business events product or experiences to bea@tourism.australia.com
